

SELL OUT YOUR LIVE EVENTS

While you're up all night making sure your event exceeds expectations, Vendini will help you save time, save money and sell more tickets.

SELL TICKETS ONLINE

With Vendini's all-in-one solution it's quick and easy to create and modify events. Auto-publish them to your own website, use Vendini Website Manager to easily create a mobile-optimized site or sell tickets directly through Facebook.

OWN YOUR FAN DATA AND PRICING

All the fan data from ticket purchases lives in your account. Use it to promote other events and engage with your fans. And, with Vendini you can include fees in the ticket price and tweak prices on the fly to make more money.

GO MOBILE

Vendini creates everything with a responsive, mobile-first approach. Ticket buying looks great on every device and purchases are quick...no login required. Buyers can even transfer tickets to friends via e-mail, share on Facebook or buy from their phone at any time.

PROMOTE YOUR EVENT

Reach a bigger audience, engage with fans and sell more tickets using integrated marketing tools. Create e-mail campaigns, monitor open rates and link to additional offers. Promote your event through Vendini's Walletini Insider and tap into a network of mobile ticket app users. Use our Facebook plug-in to enable and track direct purchases and motivate influencers who drive sales through social sharing.

ANALYZE SALES

When you're on the go, analyze your business from all angles. Create custom reports and automatically send to your bookkeeper, marketing team or promoters.
